

General information about the Nordic Conference on Construction Law – “Regulating Disruptions in Nordic Construction Contracts”

Program

The conference takes place in Lund on January 30th (full day) and 31st (half day) 2025.

The full program can be found in a document published on the homepage of Lund University Centre for Business Law (Swedish abbreviation “ACLU”):

<https://www.aclu.lu.se/evenemang/nordic-conference-construction-law-regulating-disruptions-nordic-construction-contracts>).

The program may be subject to changes.

Practicalities

The conference venue is at Palaestra ed Odeum in central Lund. The address is Paradisgatan 4.

Palaestra is located approximately 5 minutes from Lund central station.

Lunch and coffee will be served in Palaestra, in direct connection to the conference venue.

On the evening of January 30th, all participants will be served a three-course dinner at “Tegnér’s Matsalar” in AF-borgen, that is located 100 meters from Palaestra. The address is Sandgatan 2.

Travel and accommodation

All participants pay for their own travel and accommodation.

Travelling to Lund is easy. The train station is located in the city centre and only a short walk from the conference venue.

Those flying to Kastrup (Copenhagen) can travel directly from Kastrup to Lund by train. The train takes approximately 40 minutes.

Those flying to Malmö Airport can travel by bus to Lund. The bus takes approximately 40 minutes.

There are several hotels in central Lund that are located close to the central station and conference venue, for example Grand Hotel Lund, Hotel Lundia och Hotel Concordia Lund.

Taking the train between Lund central station and Malmö central station takes approximately 10–15 minutes. Examples of hotels close to Malmö central station are Clarion Hotel Malmö Live, Scandic Kramer och Elite Hotel Savoy.
